

The Museum of East Asian Art is pleased to work in cooperation with ArtChinese to host the exhibition: "Animal Kingdom: Paintings by Li Fuyuan" which features fifteen pieces of the artist's works. Mr. Li uses brush painting techniques with stunning effects. His paintings are full of bold, contrasting colours and elements that compose a visual melody of a fantastically cacophonous world. The abstract shapes work together to form the images of animals that are at once incorporated into a dramatic landscape but yet bursts out from the background to stare at the audience with as much interest and curiosity as the inquisitive humans eyes on the other side of the glazed frames. Li Fuyuan's works are sure to delight.

Four Abstract Birds, 2004 oil on canvas 76 x 76 cm

Gallopings Horses, 2008 ink & colour on paper 42.5 x 103.5 cm

Bull, 2008 ink & colour on paper 47 x 70.5 cm
